Hello Year 2, we miss you all!

Thank you for continuing to send in your wonderful photos and videos of your home learning each week. We are amazed at how creative, active and inventive you all are!

From next week we will be choosing an outstanding item of home learning to be our featured 'home learning of the week'. It can be anything that you particularly enjoyed or are proud of, for example an art activity, a creative task, a piece of writing, a song or dance you invented, or some maths work. It's up to you! Please send any photos or videos to our email:

wt.y2homelearning@perryhallmat.co.uk

This week we have:

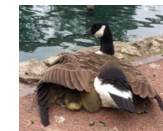

- Creative Writing based on the film 'Up'
- Port hole artwork
- A fabulous science investigation and much, much more

(p.s. who will be top of our TTRS and Spelling Shed leader boards next week... keep practising to be in with a chance)

Hello from Miss Arshad,

This week I read David Walliams book 'The Beast of Buckingham Palace' recommended by Bella. We thought it was amazing. Let us know if you've read it by dropping in an email :)

Hello from Mrs Sodhi

On my daily walk I spotted something special, do you know what it is?

Hello from Miss Richards,

This week I met something very feathery on one of her walks. I wonder which wildlife I'll spot next week?

Challenge Time.

Try this week's brain teaser and email your answers to the Y2 home learning address:
