|  Around the world Can you complete this story? After all the months of preparation and building excitement the big day had finally arrived. In unison, the balloons all took off into the air, leaving the cheering crowd far below, gasping at the magnificent spectacle. A difficult journey lay ahead, and surely not all of the balloons would make it, but they had to try – the prize of £1'000'000 for the first crew to make it around the world was a great incentive... | Time to get experimenting! https://www.sciencekids.co.nz/experiments.html This term our topic is electricity, however we understand that you may not have the components needed to conduct an experiment based on this topic. So this week, we are asking you to choose one of the experiments from the link above to complete at home with your parents. There are lots of exciting ideas to try! We would love to know how they turned out, make sure you drop us an email letting us know how you got on. | Sir Francis Drake https://www.activityvillage.co.uk/francis-drake Francis Drake (c. 1540–1596) was one of the most famous sailors of the Elizabethan age. An English sea captain and privateer, he spent his life taking treasures, sieging cities and thwarting enemy ships. Queen Elizabeth I gave him a knighthood for his actions. He also helped the English navy to defeat the Spanish Armada. Can you write a letter to Sir Francis Drake explaining why you should join his crew? What qualities do you think he'd look for in a shipmate? |
