Dear Parents and Carers,

The week beginning 6th February is National Storyteller Week. To celebrate and participate in this wonderful event, as well as provide our children with another experience to support them in their love of reading and stories, we have managed to secure a booking with storyteller Sal Tonge for Wednesday 8th February

Sal is an amazing storyteller, rather than reading from a book, she uses her incredible imagination to inspire and engage the children by using story sacks, musical instruments, props, repetition and drama. Sal will be in for the whole day and will deliver sessions to all children in Nursey and Reception, allowing every child to participate in this amazing experience. If you wish to do so, please feel free to visit Sally's Website at the following address:

www.sallytonge.co.uk

To support this wonderful experience, we are kindly asking for a voluntary contribution of £4.00 per child. As a school, we are not able to charge for the additional events and opportunities we provide but unfortunately, they are not able to go ahead without your support. If we do not receive enough contributions to cover the cost of Sal Tonge unfortunately, the sessions will not be able to go ahead. Please make complete payment via our online payment platform ParentPay.

Thank you in advance for your support.
